SERMON NOTES

"Who is This Man?" A Study through the Gospel of Mark

"The Heart of the Matter"

Mark 7: 1-23

The Pharisees and the Scribes gather around Jesus in order to try and _____ Him.

The Pharisees and the Scribes are offended the disciples are eating with ceremonial _____ hands.

The Old Testament commandments were originally meant to highlight the holiness of God. What it means to draw near to Him has now been distorted, so it is more about _____ signs and a signaling to others about one's personal holiness.

Those who are opposed to Jesus often judge Him based on His _____.

Our worship becomes vain when our actions are not connected to our hearts and we simply go through the _____.

Corban means " _____ to God."

God is always concerned with the internal: the state of the _____.

No amount of _____ work or action can change the heart.

The problem is not _____ of us but rather _____ of us.

Application

You do not need behavior change or external actions. You need something altogether new. You need a new heart because, as the Bible tells us, your heart is naturally bent toward sin and away from God. All of the sin that is described in v 21-23 and more come from within. In order to be changed, you do not need a new behavior. You need a new heart.

The great gift of the gospel is Jesus Christ exchanges His goodness for your sinfulness and, through faith in Him and repentance from sin, you can be made altogether new.

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come." 2 Corinthians 5: 17

LOVE. GROW. COMMIT. GO.

"Yet even now, declares the Lord, "return to Me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping and with mourning; and rend your hearts and not your garments. "Return to the Lord your God, for He is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love; and He relents over disaster."

Joel 2: 12-13

Samaritan's Purse Christmas Child
November 1 - November 15

Samaritan's Purse Christmas Child uses the gift-filled shoeboxes to demonstrate God's love in a tangible way to children around the world. This is accomplished by filling empty shoeboxes with "Wow" items – a doll, other toys, school supplies and hygiene items. A personal note of encouragement or a photo can be included. A table will be in the hallway across from the kitchen with shoeboxes, a list inside the shoeboxes of items that are not accepted, and envelopes. Please complete the attached label, indicating "Boy" or "Girl" and the age category and place it along with your $9.00 check or cash to cover the shipping cost per box in the envelope, and attach it to your filled box. If you would like to split the cost of a shoebox with someone, that will be fine. Also, if you can't put together a shoebox, you can still help this ministry by donating money to cover the cost of shipping the boxes. Throughout the time frame of this project, please be in prayer for the child who will receive your shoebox. Christian mission teams will deliver the Gospel message to each child along with your gift box. Pray for the mission team and pray the Holy Spirit will move the hearts of these children and their parents.

For additional information, please contact Bethany Snider or Sandra Stewart.
