SERMON NOTES

"Who is This Man?" A Study through the Gospel of Mark "Stormy Faith"

Mark 4: 35-41

Pastor Chance McConnell

September 13, 2020

Jesus sleeping in the boat speaks not only to His relationship and trust in God, but also His _____.

Jesus' humanity made Him the perfect _____ for you.

Jesus' rebuke of the wind shows us His _____.

Jesus' divinity made Him the perfect _____ for you.

The point of this story is to show us our _____ (trust) should be in Christ alone.

This story is not about the _____ of your faith, but rather the _____ of your faith.

Jesus wants full and simple _____, full and simple _____, and full and simple _____ from you.

Application

3 reasons why Jesus should be the object of your complete faith and trust:

- (1) He has proven Himself faithful by giving you Christ.
Though we were all born against God, dead in our sins in which we walked, following the course of the world and were by nature children of wrath. Still, God in His great mercy, even when we were dead in our sins, has made those who repent and believe in Christ for forgiveness of sins, alive in Christ!
- (2) He knows what you need.
Though the Lord never causes evil/bad things to happen us, there are times when hardship and trials are allowed in our lives in order to grow us, show our need for Him, and prove He will be there to meet our needs.
- (3) He cares for you.
The Lord never promised we would not encounter storms, but He has promised us He will be with us in the trials/hardships.

LOVE. GROW. COMMIT. GO.

"The cords of death encompassed me; the torrents of destruction assailed me, the cords of Sheol entangled me; the snares of death confronted me. In my distress I called upon the Lord; to my God I cried for help. From his temple he heard my voice, and my cry to him reached his ears."

Psalm 18:4-6
