SERMON NOTES

“Who is This Man?” A Study through the Gospel of Mark

“Savior to All”

Mark 5: 21-43

The effect and the guilt of sin are _____. All people are equally in need of Jesus’s work to save.

Jairus was in _____ of something that only Jesus could do.

The unnamed woman is in _____ of something that only Jesus could do.

Jesus has no interest in being a genie in a bottle that exists to grant “wishes.” Rather, He is a _____ Savior who desires to really know you and be known by you.

Jesus heals the woman not only physically but also _____ because of her faith and trust in Him.

Application

(1) The Effects of Sin to All

The effects of sin are felt by everyone. Jairus and the unnamed woman are on different sides of the social order and have almost nothing in common except that they both have been driven to Jesus by dreadful effects of sin. They both are in need of Jesus to do what only He can do.

Jesus has come to reverse the curse and _____ humanity from the effects of sin and the guilt of sin.

(2) The Guilt of Sin to All

Just as everyone feels the effects of sin, at the same time we are all guilty of our own personal sin, and our greatest need is to be forgiven of it and saved by Jesus.

No matter what we are or where we are in life, our greatest need is not physical but _____.

(3) The Savior of Sin to All

Jesus freely accepts the faith of all people, no matter their life story or their past. Just as all are needy, all can be forgiven by faith and trust in Christ. Nothing in our lives makes us outside the reach of God.
