“Unexpected Christmas” - Advent 2020

“In My Place Condemned He Stood”

Luke 1: 26-38; Matthew 1: 18-25

Pastor Chance McConnell

December 13, 2020

We may be tempted to think the most important and significant things only happen to the powerful - the wealthy - the influential - the popular - the esteemed - and the ones who have it all together. But the _____ down nature of the Christmas story teaches us about the things God values most and the people He loves and desires to save.

_____ and _____ will be to us an example not only of the kinds of people God saves and desires to use, but also the kind of response we should have to God.

The angel of the Lord passes by Judea and Jerusalem and instead goes to a tiny and insignificant village named _____.

God in His _____ ordained Jesus would come to the world not through the most powerful, important, and rich, but instead through the poor and lowly Mary of Nazareth.

Mary - as precious as she was - is still a sinful person in need of God's grace and _____.

The child born from Mary will be holy and without sin - because He was conceived by a miracle of _____.

Mary is willing to take on _____ and scorn that are not hers and not her fault because of her faith in God and what He will accomplish through Jesus.

Joseph also chose to embrace shame that would come to him because he had chosen the honorable, _____ and _____ thing.

The insignificant town of Nazareth and the tiny town of Bethlehem are meant to ultimately lead to Golgotha and the _____ of Jesus.

Jesus' coming means He comes to take _____ sin, shame, and reproach - to bear that which is not His - for my sake - so that you could be made right with God.

The _____ and _____ of Christ are the reasons why He is the perfect sacrifice.

The only people who can truly _____ this child and the peace He brings are people who humbly _____ their need and then believe in the fact God has met that need through Christ.

upside	Mary & Joseph	Nazareth	wisdom	favor	God
shame	gracious; merciful	cross	my	divinity & humanity	know; acknowledge

Psalm 103:8-11 The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. He will not always chide, nor will he keep his anger forever. He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our iniquities. For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his steadfast love toward those who fear him;

John 15:12-15 This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for all that I have heard from the Father I have made known to you.
