3 Responses to Jesus we see in John 12:9-11

1. The _____ response.
2. The _____ response.
3. The _____ response.

The _____ following after Jesus and Lazarus display the _____ response.

Curiosity doesn't equal belief.

The _____ display the _____ response.

We experience conflict when we know the truth but desire to ignore the truth.

_____ displays the _____ response.

When we live the convinced response it can be written of us “on account of him many were going away and believing in Jesus.”

Take Home Truths:

Which response do you show to the work of Jesus?

The curious response is not a saving response.

The conflicted response is not a saving response.

The only saving response is the convinced response.

It is time we live our lives like dead men who have been brought to life by Jesus.

curious	conflicted	convinced	people, curious

John 12: 9 – 11

The plot to kill both Jesus and Lazarus.

Now a great many of the Jews knew He was there; and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but they might also see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. But the chief priests plotted to put Lazarus to death also, because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.

The chief priests plotted to put Lazarus to death also: The chief priests were mostly Sadducees, and the Sadducees didn't believe in the resurrection. Lazarus was a living example of life after death, and having him around was an embarrassment to their theological system. For them, there was only one solution to this embarrassing problem – to put Lazarus to death also.

On account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus: This made the problem of the chief priests worse. The miracle of raising Lazarus from the dead drew many people to Jesus. Therefore, in the opinion of these religious leaders, Lazarus also had to be stopped.
