Jesus taught and the very best thing we can do as a church is _____ what He has told us.

In His response to the Pharisees, Jesus quotes from the creation account in order to reference the original good and right design of God in _____.

Marriage is _____ institution.

In Jesus’s response we see:

The _____ of marriage (v 6).

The _____ of marriage (v 7).

The _____ of marriage (v 8-9).

Marriage is designed to be between _____ persons (male and female).

Our genders _____ one another, and God’s gifting’s to each are distinct, intentional, and beautiful.

Marriage is a promise or covenant with one another and God, like the one He makes with us in the _____.

The _____ of two people in marriage is intended by God to be permanent because it reflects Christ’s own love for His people.

The Bible speaks clearly to certain exceptions where divorce is _____ by God and thus not sinful or wrong (Matt 5:32; 19:9; Ro 7: 2-3; 1 Cor 7: 12-16).

In v 11-12, Jesus is speaking _____ the Pharisee’s view of casual divorce.

Application (Take Home Truths)

Jesus holds a high view of marriage - and calls his followers to do the same - because an unbiblical and casual approach to divorce distorts the image of God that is symbolized in marriage. This standard - based on God’s never-ending and never-failing love is actually really good news for all of us.

Every single one of us is guilty of falling short of God’s original design. For some it might be within God’s design for marriage and for others it might be a completely different way. But all of us are guilty in some way and are in need of the grace and forgiveness of God that comes through Jesus Christ. A grace that is given to us through the gospel and imaged for us in the gift of marriage.

Christ’s never-ending, never-failing, never-giving up, covenant keeping love is just that: never-ending, never-failing, and never-giving up. If you have found yourself guilty of breaking God’s design in the persons, promise, permanence of marriage or perhaps in another way, know that there is grace and forgiveness for you in the gospel. The image of Christ’s dedication and love to the church is a reminder that no one is beyond the grace and forgiveness of Jesus Christ. “What God has joined together”, means you too, Christian. Christ will not separate Himself, His love, and His forgiveness from those who repent and believe in Him.

The
Will of God
will never take you
where the Grace
of God
will not protect you.

Where there is the truth of grace, there will be an increase of it. The path of the just is as the shining light, which shines more and more unto the perfect day. And where there is the increase of grace, God must have all the glory. Where faith grows, love will abound, for faith works by love. It shows faith and patience, such as may be proposed as a pattern for others, when trials from God, and persecutions from men, quicken the exercise of those graces; for the patience and faith of which the apostle gloried, bore them up, and enabled them to endure all their tribulations.
