“Who is This Man?”
A Study through the Gospel of Mark
“Lessons From A Fig Tree”
Mark 11:12-21
Pastor Chance McConnell

In great and wonderful mystery, Jesus was fully _____ and fully _____ - both of which will be on display in this passage.

This particular fig tree falsely gave off the appearance that it had _____.

In the original design of the temple, the Court of Gentiles was intended to be a place where the foreigner could come and seek the _____.

The temple was the place where the presence of the Lord was pleased to dwell with His people - it was a place of _____ and _____.

The Court of Gentiles has become a virtual stock market of animal dealers who over charged for sacrifices and corrupt money changers who stole from those who came with foreign currency. All of this condoned by the _____ of Israel who made themselves rich off the extortion of God’s people.

As Jesus enters the _____, He is disgusted, grieved, sorrowful, and righteously angered by what He sees and observes.

In Mark 11, the barren fig tree is a picturing of God’s _____ on the temple.

The temple should have been producing _____ - worship, prayer, and reverence for Holy God. But it had become a place where the poor were preyed on and the foreigner was kept from seeking God.

Jesus is _____ but He is also _____.

Application (Take Home Truths)

As the people of God, we must be aware that it is possible in our own Christian lives and walk as well as in the life of the church to have the appearance of fruit and yet be lacking.

The questions that we must ask are: “Am I spiritually healthy? “Is our church healthy?” Or are we just busy?

Are we healthy? Do we have - corporately and personally - hearts that are for the Lord? Are we seeking to worship him and live our lives in the ways he has told us?

Are you pursuing Christ daily and intentionally in prayer and study of His Word? Are you living out the gospel and bearing fruit that keeps with repentance?

Is our church a house of prayer and a bright shining gospel light to the community, that says “This is what it means to know and follow Jesus Christ!” Are we a place whose highest aim is the worship of God? Are we a place with forgiving spirits to people who seek the good of others? Or are we something else? Do we have the leaves of religion without the fruit?

The lesson of the fig tree is a reminder to search our own hearts and our church’s heart to ensure we are not just busy with activity but are truly worshipping the Lord.

We must be on guard and fight against the temptation to not become those who honor with our lips while our hearts are far from God.

HELP A STUDENT GO TO CAMP- This summer the students of FBC will be attending Crossing Camp at Camp Cedarmore. Due to the COVID restrictions we have not been able to fund raise as we normally would, which means we are in need of funds to get these students to camp. Our current need is $2,345. This will pay for 9 students and 2 adults to attend camp. Would you like to help a student go to camp? If so, there are two ways you can help.

1. Sponsor a student. It will cost $220 per student. You can sponsor a student by yourself or share the responsibility with a few people.
2. You can make a donation to the Youth Designated account. Simply designate your gift to the youth by writing Youth on the memo line of your check, placing cash in an envelope with a designation on the outside, or by giving online and designating your gift through the drop-down menu.

Thank you for always supporting the youth as they grow in their relationship with Christ!
