“Who is This Man?”
A Study through the Gospel of Mark
“First Fruits”
Mark 11: 22-26
Pastor Chance McConnell

In our text Jesus is going to show us what the _____ of a believer’s life should be.

Jesus is going to show us three ways in which the believer bears true fruit:

_____ in God (v22)

_____ (v23-24)

_____ (v 25-26)

Faith in God is the starting place and _____. There is not fruit bearing and there is no true worship if you do not know and believe in God.

The believer only has _____ because of who God is and how He has loved us.

_____ is commanding and calling you to active and real faith in the true and living God!

God’s _____, plan, purpose, and will is not dependent on the outside circumstances of your life.

_____ is more than communication with God, it is an open admission of our dependence on Him and that we can do nothing apart from Him.

Our prayers must be based on _____ faithfulness.

Our prayers should not treat God like a _____ in a bottle but rather be a passionate pursuit to see His plans in us, to grow His kingdom, and save and sanctify His people.

One of the true fruits of a believer’s life is a willingness to _____.

Understanding our sin transforms us, by the power of God, to be _____. It is not a source of our own strength but a work of God’s grace in us.

Application (Take Home Truths)

Jesus shows us - in the wake of the cursing of the fig tree and the cleansing of the temple and just three days before he will be arrested, sentenced, and crucified - Jesus teaches us what true fruit in the believer’s life looks like:

It is not a leafy cover of religious activity, busyness, or some sort of past obedience that you have been banking on. True fruit and true worship rather start with faith in God.

It is the fruit of prayer that asks the Lord according to His will and purpose and trusts in his ability and power to do all that we need.

It is the fruit of forgiveness because it testifies to the work of the gospel in our heart.

LOVE. GROW. COMMIT. GO.

"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law."

Galatians 5: 22-23

*Please help keep us updated – requests will remain on the list for 4 weeks.

If you desire longer, or to have them placed in a different section,
Please call the church office to let us know.

Youth Fundraising UPDATE!- As always you have stepped in generously and paid the way for all of the students and adult volunteers to attend Crossing Camp in July! We are absolutely overwhelmed by the outpouring of generosity you have shown! The Lord has shown his excellent goodness through you. Thank you so much for supporting the youth of FBC.

If you had planned to give, but have not yet, please do consider still supporting the youth. The expenses of camp have been covered, but there are other activities we would like to have throughout the summer that will require money. Every penny given will be used to serve the youth of FBC and the community as we seek to grow in our relationship with Christ!.

Thank you for always supporting the youth as they grow in their relationship with Christ
