“Who is This Man?”
A Study through the Gospel of Mark
“You Don’t Have To Live Like A Sadducee”
Mark 12: 18-27
Pastor Chance McConnell

The Sadducees were a small but influential group within Judaism who did not believe there was a _____ to life.

The question posed by the Sadducees picks up from what is called “_____ marriage”, found in Deuteronomy 25: 5-6.

The _____ of this question is to make Jesus stammer and stumble over His answer and so discredit Him as a teacher and the promised Messiah who has come.

The mistake of the Sadducees was that they had too low of a view of God and too dull of a view of _____.

For the believer in Christ, there is a _____ and a confidence about the resurrection from the dead to Heaven.

God does not speak in the _____ tense (“I was Abraham’s God; I was Isaac’s God; I was Jacob’s God”) rather, He speaks in the _____ tense: “I am the God of Abraham; I am the God of Isaac; I am the God of Jacob”.

God cannot be the current God of a person who is dead but He is the current and present God of a person who is _____.

Though we die, God will not break the eternal covenant He has made with the believer through _____.

Jesus is not saying our _____ on this Earth didn’t matter or weren’t important.

In Heaven, things like loneliness simply won’t exist. In fact, none of the sin that hinders and affect us in this life will be _____.

In the resurrection to life all of our _____ will be no more, for they will be met fully and completely in God.

In the New Heaven and New Earth there are not husbands and wives but rather there is one bride: the _____, prepared for her groom, _____.

In the resurrection to life our present bodies will be made _____.

In the resurrection to life _____ will cease and be no more.

Application

Jesus is saying to the Sadducees and to us: “Heaven is not a mere continuation of this present life but it is in fact far better, far greater, far more right, far more wonderful, far and more glorious than you can ever imagine”. Heaven is not only an improvement over the worst of this world, but even over the best.

The Sadducees missed this and many of us miss this as well. The Resurrection to life is not a hypothetical ethical dilemma. For the believer, it is certain reality. And just as certain as it is for the believer, the reality of eternal punishment for the one who rejects Jesus is tragically certain as well.

What will we do with these truths? How will you respond to the truths of salvation? Will you receive and submit to Christ repent and believe in him?
