Jesus answers the man by quoting from Deuteronomy 6, which is called in Hebrew the “_____”.

Jesus calls this man (and us) to _____ all that the Lord has done for us and how we are to _____ and follow Him in obedience as His people.

The basis for our love and devotion to God, is _____.

God alone is to be the _____ of our affections, worship and devotion.

When Jesus says we are to love with all of our heart, soul, mind, and strength He is showing us that true worship demands nothing less than _____ of ourselves.

_____ for God is to be more than just outside and external actions. It must be driven from within ourselves.

Loving God with our heart, soul, mind, and strength means to put God first and _____ all that we are for His purpose.

It is _____ to love God and not love your neighbor, neither can you truly love your neighbor and not love God.

The local _____ should be the most grace filled and loving place on Earth.

Jesus redefines _____ to mean not only other brother and sister Christians but also all people - even those who we might consider enemies.

The reality is that no one has ever loved God with all of themselves (heart, soul, mind, and strength). No one has ever loved their neighbor truly as themselves. Jesus is the only one who has perfectly lived in total submission, worship, and devotion, toward God. Jesus is the only one who has ever loved His neighbor and loved His enemies as Himself. Indeed, while you and I were yet sinners - enemies and hostile to God, unwilling and unable to submit to His will and ways - still, even then, Christ went to the cross for us. He gave His life as a ransom for many and rose again on the third day so that you and I could defeat death and sin by repentance and faith in Him.

The only way into the Kingdom of God is through faith and trust in Jesus Christ - realizing that you can't keep the greatest (or even one of the commandments) of God and that you are desperate for Jesus to do for you that which you cannot do for yourself: trade to you His righteousness and obedience in exchange for your halfhearted obedience and sinful rebellion toward God. This is the way in the kingdom.

LOVE. GROW. COMMIT. GO.

“Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.
