“Who is This Man?”
 A Study through the Gospel of Mark
 “Render To God The Things That Are God’s”
 Mark 12: 13-17
 Pastor Chance McConnell

The Pharisees and the Herodians could not have been more _____ in their views and beliefs.

Jesus is to be the standard and measure by which all _____ is marked.

Jesus _____ teaches the Word of God. He is the very Word of God and everything He says and commands is the very command of God and therefore should be followed and obeyed.

The Pharisees and Herodians words show us the dangerous reality that the _____ can easily utter things that the _____ does not truly know or believe.

Stating some facts and true statements about someone doesn’t necessarily mean that you actually _____ them or even believe what you have said.

Jesus’s words in v17 acknowledge that God, in his wisdom, has created two institutions in the world: the _____ and the _____.

Roman law said that because the Denarius bore the _____ of the emperor, it belonged to him.

Jesus acknowledges the legitimacy of human government and that there is an obligation for the follower of God to _____ to those who are in authority over us - for the good and peace of all people.

In God’s good _____ and plan, the power of the sword to wage war and keep peace has been given to the state (Romans 13: 1-7).

It is important to understand that the words of Jesus in v17 are not a “blank _____” for governing authorities. The Christian is to follow those over them - unless or until it affects the gathering, the worship, or the preaching of the gospel of Jesus Christ (Acts 4: 18-20).

Caesar’s authority is ultimately under and superseded by God’s authority and so is _____.

Just as the image of Caesar was on the Denarius and therefore it was owed to him, so too we are to give unto God the things that his image is on: _____.

There are at least two ways to “render to God that which is God’s”:

- (1) _____ (your faith)
- (2) _____ (your growth)

There is no giving to God unless there is first belief in God and valuing of _____.

You will not truly know Jesus until you understand His _____ and all that He has done for you through His life and death.

We also give to God what is God’s (ourselves) by growing to be more like _____.

As a Christian, your life should be marked _____ by the character, qualities, service, sacrifice, selflessness, forgiveness, devotion, and love of Jesus Christ.
