

“Like a Bridge Over Troubled Waters”

Scripture: Mark 6:45-52

Outline

1. Encouragement number One - When you find yourself in a storm, learn to say, “God b_____ me here.”
2. Encouragement number Two. When you find yourself in a storm, learn to say “God is preparing me for f_____ ministry.”
3. Encouragement number Three- When you find yourself in a storm, learn to say “God will c_____ to me.”
4. Encouragement number Four - When you find yourself in a storm, learn to say “God will see me t_____.”

Application:

1. Then, and now, Christ discloses Himself to us in our trouble and shares with us His dominion over difficulty.
2. Sometimes our obedience to Christ places us in difficulty. Faithfulness to Christ brings no immunity from difficulty. It almost ensures it. To follow Christ in this age guarantees storms. The storm at Sea was preparatory. Peter and the others would spend a lifetime in storms because of obedience to Him.
3. We may not recognize Christ’s help when He comes. The disciples thought they had seen a ghost.
